GRAND KNIGHTS REPORT

by Grand Knight Chris Dugan
Spring Greetings,

I would like to wish everyone a Happy Easter. The Knights have finished a busy first quarter of the New Year. In January we held our annual stew day with the proceeds benefiting the local scouts.

In February our annual Family Fraternal Dinner was held with special guest's attending: John Applebaum, State Deputy, his wife Carol, Father Glen Eftink, and Monsignor Richard Rowling. We celebrated 60 years as Council 3282. The council honored our deceased Charter members with a moment of silent prayers. We have three charter members still with us: Cornelius Rolwing, Mark Rolwing, and Norbert Rolwing. Brother Mark and Brother Norbert were present to accept a Certificate of Honor and family of Brother Cornelius was present to accept his Certificate of Honor. Brother Tim Rolwing was honored as Knight of the Year. We had a delicious steak dinner prepared by Brother Clark Dugan and Brother Clay Dugan. To finish the evening, Taylor Bledsoe and Clayton Ohmes had the honors of drawing tickets to present door prizes to those attending. Thank you goes out to all that made this a special evening!

On March 17th we held the annual St. Patrick's corn beef and cabbage meal. I would like to say Thank You to the cooks, all those that donated corn bread and desserts, and to the parish and community.

In April we are planning to sell bratwurst, chips and a drink during the Dogwood- Azalea Festival and in May we will sell BBQ pork butts around Memorial

The Knights of Columbus Council 3282 held the annual Freethrow Championship on January 22nd. Above, Connor Dugan won the 14 year old girl's division. She advanced to the district level which was held on February 13th at St. Henry's Gym.

Day.

Brother Knights, please try to recruit 2 more members for our council. With two new members we could make Star Council. Any man interested in joining the Knights of Columbus please contact the K of C.

May God Bless You,
 Chris Dugan, Grand Knight
